

TRAINER PROFILE MANUEL BRUNN

Career

- University degree in social education (Dipl. Soz. Pädagoge).
- Further education as systemic coach and consultant (DAA, Augsburg).
- Further education in hypnosystemic coaching (Dr. Gunther Schmidt, Milton Erickson Institute Heidelberg).
- Further education in large group procedures (Erich Kolenaty, Transformation, Vienna).
- Further education in systemic group dynamics (Dr. Karl Schattenhofer, TOPS Munich + Berlin).
- Systemic concepts for managers (Dr. Arnold Retzer, Systemic Institute, Heidelberg).
- Further education in conflict mediation (Dr. Gunther Schmidt, Milton Erickson Institute Heidelberg).
- Further training in TCI, moderation, educational play theory.
- DAV Trainer C (competition climbing), VDKS Kayak Guide.
- Long-time member of German National Climbing Team, BLSW base trainer, execution of numerous training courses and workshops in competitive sports (e.g. youth national team and Bavarian squad sport climbing).

Working priorities

- Training, workshops and consulting on the following topics: team development, conflict management, communication.
- Moderation and facilitation of workshops.
- Change management and change processes support.
- Management and support of team development processes (with inclusion of individually designed outdoor activities).
- Conception and management of young professional programs.
- Large groups moderation and facilitation.

Languages

- German
- English

